TSCRA Summer Meeting

Hyatt Regency Resort, Lost Pines, Texas

June 15-17, 2008

As the summer meeting draws near, we want to bring your attention to a few updates on the program, speakers and social activities. Register by June 10, 2008, and save. Look on the back of this flyer for the schedule.

Be ready for some excitement on Sunday evening. Following a fajita dinner with all the trimmings served on the Riversong Lawn, the races begin.

Jack Russell Terrier Races

Join in for some fun as these little dynamos “go for the gold.” For each race, pick your color. If your color wins, your name goes into a pot with a drawing held. For each race, the winner will receive a prize and your name goes into a pot. At the end of all the races, a winner will be chosen to receive a grand prize.

Proceeds from purchase of your color tickets will be donated to the family of former Special Ranger Eddie Foreman, District 15, who died unexpectedly at his home on May 6, 2008.

Confirmed Speakers

Joint Animal Health/Agricultural Research Committees: Dr. Glenn Rogers with Pfizer will give an overview of Trichomonas. Dr. Bob Hillman with the Texas Animal Health Commission will advise what other states are doing to combat this disease.

Marketing Committee: Jim Kelley with Superior Livestock Auction will speak on adding value to your calves.

Joint Brand and Inspection/Wildlife committees will meet with topic to be determined

Natural Resources & Environment Committee: Warren Samuelson, TCEQ, will talk about reservoir dam rules and border fencing.

Legislative and Tax Committee: The Honorable Susan Combs and a representative from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department will talk about revised rules for wildlife management tax exemptions.

Rounding out the meeting, TSCRA President Jon Means will report to the attendees and Gregg Doud, Chief Economist with National Cattlemen’s Beef Association will fill us in on ethanol’s impact both globally and locally.

★★★All TSCRA members and interested cattle raisers are invited to attend.★★★
