JOE J. PARKER JR.

First Vice President, Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association

Joe Parker of Byers, Texas, is a partner in Parker Ranches Ltd. with his brother, Jim. They are involved in ranching, farming and operating a pecan orchard.

Both Jim and Joe have served as TSCRA directors in the past, and their late father, Joe J. Parker Sr., was a longtime TSCRA director. Joe Jr. was re-elected to the board in March 2005 and elected second vice president in 2007.

He is also chairman of the board and CEO of the First National Bank of Byers; vice president and manager of Parker & Mayo Inc., an investment company; and partner and manager of Parker Minerals Ltd., an oil and gas investment company.

Born May 6, 1951, in Denton County, Texas, Joe graduated from Byers High School in 1969. He graduated from Texas Tech University with a Bachelor of Science degree in agribusiness in 1973 and from the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking at Southern Methodist University in 1982.

He is a member of the National Cattlemen's Beef Association; a former director of the North Texas Rehabilitation Center; a former elder of First Christian Church in Wichita Falls; and a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

In the past he has served as a trustee of the Midwestern State University Foundation; state director of the Independent Bankers Association of Texas; and board member and chairman of the Clay County Pioneer Reunion and Rodeo.

Joe and his wife, Marjorie (Hodgson), have two daughters: Sarah Parker of Plano, Texas; and Joanna Parker Willcox, husband, Vince Willcox of Edmond, Okla. and one grandson, Reese Willcox.
